Kid-Friendly Explanation: Words that mean the same thing are called synonyms. When you "begin" a game or a race, it means you "start" it!

64. Look at this sentence: "Ouch! The sharp thorn pricked my finger." Why is there an exclamation mark after "Ouch!"?

- A. Because it shows a sudden feeling of pain or surprise
- B. Because it is asking a question
- C. Because it is the end of a long story
- D. Because it is a naming word

Answer: A. Because it shows a sudden feeling of pain or surprise

Kid-Friendly Explanation: We use an exclamation mark (!) whenever a word expresses a strong or sudden feeling, like shouting from a sudden painful prick!
